

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.”—
John 3:16-18.

God loved you by tasting death for you on the cross nearly two thousand years ago. He did not have to do it. He chose to do it willingly. He laid down His life to save yours. If you wish to be saved, you need to believe that Jesus died to pay for your sins, and arose from the dead on the third day. You need to call on God out of a broken heart for your sin, and ask Jesus to take away your sins. You need to ask Jesus to save you and to give you a new life in Him.

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.”—Romans 10:9-10.

Pray: “Dear God, I realize that I am a sinner and need to be saved. Please forgive me for all my sins, and save me from Hell. Thank you Jesus for dying for my sins, and rising from the dead on my behalf. Please make me your child and help me to live for you for the rest of my life.. Amen”

What Does Bowling Teach us About Ourselves and about God?

Bowling is a lot of fun! But there is a great lesson we can learn about ourselves and about God just by playing one game of it!

“Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:”—1 Peter 2:2.

Jesus lived a perfect life and was able to fulfill the whole law of God, because we could not. Why did He do that? It is because sin separates us from God. “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”—Romans 6:23. Jesus never sinned, but He did die. Why did an innocent person who never sinned die? He did it because He loved us and took our sin debt upon Himself. “For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.”—2 Corinthians 5:21.

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.”—Romans 5:8-9.

Bowling Teaches us that we are not perfect!

One of the STRIKING realities about bowling is the fact that no one bowls a perfect game. We may have some really good sets where we bowl a strike or two, or a spare, but we eventually miss pins and throw gutter balls. That is because no one is perfect. We all miss the mark from time to time. That is a fact of life. There may be times in our lives where we do better than at other times, but there are other times where we just mess up. We hurt others by the things we say. We get mad at others while driving down the road. We say and do things that we don't mean. We miss the mark as to what is perfect before God. God is perfect, but we are not.

“For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;”—Romans 3:23.

When it comes to life, no one bowls a perfect game! We all fall short of God's glory. However, there is one man who did live a perfect life. His name is Jesus.
